Position: Graduate Assistant Fall 2015/Spring 2016

Position Description: Center for Wildlife Education. The incumbent will assist the Wildlife Center’s Curator and Education Coordinator. Curatorial responsibilities will include assisting with animal husbandry, training and handling the center’s vast collection of raptors, reptiles, amphibians, and mammals. Education responsibilities will include planning and implementing, and delivering of educational programs. The incumbent will work 20 hours per week, and some weekends will be required. The start date will be August 10, 2015, and the end date will be May 31, 2016.

Minimum Requirements: Bachelor’s Degree in Biology, Environmental Education or related field; effective verbal and oral communication; organizational and interpersonal skills necessary; ability to work with limited supervision, inclement weather, and to work with diverse populations

Preferred Qualifications: Prior experience handling raptors and reptiles is required

Semester: Fall 2015/Spring 2016

Contact: Please submit resume and cover letter to pharley@georgiasouthern.edu