Georgia Southern Men’s Golf Graduate Assistant
Job Description

The Georgia Southern Graduate Assistant position will include team coaching duties as well as an Academic golf teaching position.

Golf Coaching Expectations:

The Graduate Assistant position will assist the Head Golf Coach with the duties associated with the men’s golf program for the 2016-2017 school year. Responsibilities will include, but are not limited to: assisting with practice and tournament preparation, transportation, recruitment of academically and athletically qualified student-athletes, and a commitment to the student-athlete’s academic progress and degree completion. Applicants must display leadership qualities, a strong work ethic and an energetic and positive attitude. Georgia Southern University is associated with the NCAA Division I and a part of the Sun Belt Conference. This position will be for 10 months and will provide a monthly stipend and a tuition waiver.

Academic Golf Teaching Expectations:

The Men’s Golf Graduate Assistant position will be partially funded by the School of Health and Kinesiology with the expectation of providing instruction for 3 sections of golf (KINS 1310) per academic semester. The physical activity sections of golf will be held at the University Park at GSU during the academic year; each section of golf meets for 50 minutes twice a week. (M/W or T/R) Academic teaching responsibilities include, but are not limited to: lesson planning, instruction, and evaluation; taking role, updating rosters, and submitting grades; surveying the facility and equipment prior to the start of class; reporting safety or set-up concerns to the appropriate facilities contact; informing of equipment needs; and distributing and collecting class equipment as appropriate.

The Graduate Assistant is expected to provide instruction in physical activity courses (Golf) assigned by the Director of Physical Activity/Healthful Living Program.

 Teaching Graduate Assistants are required to attend and participate in training week, which begins the Monday prior to the start of the first day of classes during Fall Semester.

Preferred Qualifications:

College playing and/or coach experience are preferred, as well as a Bachelor’s Degree and acceptance into Georgia Southern’s graduate school program. Applicants must have the ability to work with Microsoft Office programs and have a clean driving record.

Instructions to Applicants:

To apply, please submit a resume, cover letter, and contact information of three professional references to Carter Collins, cartercollins@georgiasouthern.edu, PO Box 8082-05, Statesboro, GA 30460.